The primary program (3-6 years) is a three year program. The class is a balance of boys and girls of each age group (3, 4 and 5). Children are admitted on a space available basis. The majority of openings each year are for 3 year olds. Three year old siblings are given first priority, but they must be enrolled at 3 years of age.

Elementary students who have not had previous Montessori experience may enter after their kindergarten, first or second grade years, by agreement with the teaching staff and school director.
